

Combat Stress Can Remain Even After You Return Home

Even after returning from a theater of combat, stress can significantly interfere with a veteran's ability to relate to family, friends, and work. It can also affect other areas of daily functioning. The lingering effects of stress can be expressed as hostility, anger, trouble sleeping, and emotional numbing. Often times, work suffers due to absenteeism, fatigue, or impaired concentration.

If you feel you may be experiencing any symptoms related to combat stress or military sexual trauma, please contact your nearest VA health care facility.

Vet Centers in VISN 4

There are twelve VA Vet Centers in our service area which may also be of assistance to returning service members. Vet Centers provide such services as neighborhood counseling for individuals and groups, and housing assistance. To find the closest Vet Center, please contact the nearest VA medical center or check online at:

Health Care Services for Returning Combat Veterans

“To care for him who shall have borne the battle and for his widow and his orphan”...

Abraham Lincoln

The U. S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) provides needed health care, benefits, and support for returning service members.

VA Stars & Stripes Healthcare Network (VISN 4) is part of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. We provide health care and social services to veterans in Pennsylvania, Delaware, and several counties in West Virginia, Ohio, New Jersey, and New York. There are 10 hospitals and over 40 community-based outpatient clinics in the network.

Dental Care

If a veteran did not receive a pre-separation dental exam from the military, then the veteran is eligible to receive a dental exam from VA within 90 days of separation.

Establishing Combat Veteran Eligibility

VA has promoted new eligibility rules that provide Active Component and Reserve Component personnel who served in designated combat zones (since November 11, 1998) with 2 free years of care from the date of separation from active duty. Note that free care refers to all services related to the veteran's combat experience, even if there is insufficient medical evidence to conclude that such a condition is attributable to such service. Co-payments may be charged for treatment of non-combat related conditions.
